

DRAFT Agenda
Supporting green sectors in Islamic countries:
National Green Export Reviews

IDB Pavillion at COP22

Marrakesh, Morocco

13:30-15:00

14 November 2016

13:30 – 14:00	Welcome and Introduction* The importance of sustainable development in Islamic culture and IDB programmes Mr Abdulhakim Elwaer Director – Cooperation & Resources Mobilization Department Islamic Development Bank (IDB) Climate change mitigation, adaptation and the green economy Mr Lucas Assuncao Chief – Trade, Environment, Sustainable Development and Climate Change Branch (TED) United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) UNCTAD’s National Green Export Reviews (NGERs): Mr Robert Hamwey Economics Affairs Officer – TED, UNCTAD *Session introduced and moderated by: Mr Elmostafa Aitimor Senior Cooperation Specialist – Cooperation & Resources Mobilization Department, IDB
14:00 – 15:00	The experiences of three IDB member countries with NGERs Morocco Mr Abdelouahed Fikrat Secretary General, Ministry of Environment, Morocco Ms Nadia Zine Chief Engineer, Ministry of Environment, Morocco Oman Mr/Ms ABC Head of COP 22 Delegation Mr Omar Al-Jabri Professor, Department of Agriculture, Sultan Qaboos University Lebanon Mr/Ms ABC Head of COP 22 Delegation Mr Ali Yaacoub Director, Lebanese Cleaner Production Center (LCPC) Discussion
15:00	Meeting closure & announcement of IDB support for NGERs in IDB member countries Mr Abdulhakim Elwaer Director – Cooperation & Resources Mobilization Department, IDB